We Do...

When you arrive, we invite you to enjoy a cup of coffee and a malasada, and meet our other guests

When everyone has arrived, we will ask you to move to the area under the banyan tree.

If you requested a chair for the ceremony, one has been reserved for you under the tree.

After a few words of welcome we will distribute lei to our Ohana (extended family)

Lei are the traditional Hawaiian symbol of greeting, respect, love, and celebration. The bride's white tuberose & red roses symbolize love, congratulations, and commitment. The groom's traditional ti leaf & maile vine symbolize respect, life, and good luck.

We will exchange our vows, and our rings, and probably a kiss or two under the banyan tree

Then relax on chairs or blankets for a picnic brunch

And help yourself to a goodie bag before you leave

Throughout the events, Jocelyn S. of Snap n' Clicks Photography will be capturing our special day. Feel free to take pix of your own, but please try not to get in the way of her shots.
